Hi...

I don't know if I am being dumb.. But whenever I try and make a Siggy it won't make it in a huge form, if I want to make something be on a seperate line then I have to spam the spacebar which makes me have less characters to use (Making me VERY mad!!!!!!!!)

@Atlas It looooks like it came through? Let me know if it hasn't. Sometimes things take a while to come through depending on how many other posts are being processed in the filter at the time :P

@Gleam If we did have advanced stuff like that, the filter would be magically brilliant! Someday...

@Sirius AHHH I'm so excited for you!!! Have so much fun!! ~not throwing away my shot~

@Gleam Oooh I'm very excited to read that! Glad that one clicked with you ^_^

@Zane Sorry, missed that one! The rule of thumb is that explicit descriptions of blood/gore won't make it through the filter. If you write a scene that has violence in it, and it doesn't make it to the forums, tone down the action scenes and try again. There's no hard and fast rule as to what's too much, just keep it PG and be ready to try again. (I recommend saving your posts in a doc before trying to post them if you're unsure)

You build a snowman and it comes to life! So you start building other snow-things. A snowdog. Snowbirds. They all come to life. Then you build a snow dragon. It turns to look at you... and opens its mouth to emit an icy blast that you narrowly manage to dodge. Maybe this wasn't such a good idea.

@Fairydragon oh there will definitely be emotes, I can't guarantee hugtackles but we will make sure the emotes are fun

@Zane From what I've read I think that's fine! If it makes it through the filter it's most likely going to be alright. Issues are usually about an excessive amount, explicit descriptions, or violence that could be read as directed to a real other forumer (that's where the filter gets stuck sometimes, since it doesn't have the context of the story).

@Atlas That I can't do, but you can reset your password through the "forgot password" prompt when you're logging in. That will send you your account information to the email account you used to sign up! I hope you can access your old accounts!

@Night Is the "Polar Express: Redux" your fanfic? Looks like you might've changed it to not reference a town and now it came through. Unfortunately even with stories the filter always has to air on the side of caution when it comes to real or real-sounding town names.

@Prim I'm sorry I didn't see your comments til too late :-/ I am looking forward to anything you write.
